

Red Tree Coral Primnoa pacifica <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Depth: 250-1,000 meters</li> <li>• Pink to orange in color</li> <li>• Size: 20 centimeters to larger than 3 meters</li> </ul>	Bubblegum Coral Paragorgia arborea pacifica <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Depth: 250 meters and deeper</li> <li>• Red to pink in color</li> <li>• Size: Ranges from 20 centimeters to larger than 3 meters</li> <li>• Branching coral</li> </ul>	Brown Box Crab Lopholithodes foraminatus <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Depth: Intertidal to 550 meters</li> <li>• Red-brown color</li> <li>• Size: Carapace width approximately 18.5 centimeters</li> <li>• Usually found in the deep sea, on the ocean's sea floor</li> </ul>	Giant Pacific Octopus Enteroctopus dofleini <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Depth: Shallow to 800 meters</li> <li>• Reddish-brown color, but can vary with mood or background</li> <li>• Size: Arm spread about 3 meters</li> <li>• Weight: About 100 pounds</li> <li>• Found on rocky, as well as soft bottom</li> </ul>
Scarlet King Crab Lithodes cousei <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Depth: Intertidal to 183 meters</li> <li>• Reddish in color</li> <li>• Weight: Ranges from 8-20 pounds</li> </ul>	Basket Star Gorgonocephalus eucnemis <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Depth: 10-2,000 meters</li> <li>• Dark brown to pinkish color</li> <li>• Size: Central disk is up to 14 centimeters</li> <li>• Found on rocky bottoms</li> </ul>	Spider Hard Coral Lophelia pertusa <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Depth: 65-1,000 meters</li> <li>• Light pinkish to white in color</li> <li>• Colonial organism</li> <li>• Aggregate-forming deep-sea coral</li> </ul>	Black Skate Raja trachura <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Depth: 213-2,550 meters</li> <li>• Gray to black in color</li> <li>• Size: Up to a maximum of 91 centimeters</li> <li>• Found partially or completely buried in sand or silt</li> </ul>
Mushroom Soft Coral Anthomastus sp. <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Depth: 500-1,000 meters</li> <li>• Red to pink in color</li> <li>• Size: 5-15 centimeters</li> <li>• Ball shaped on top with a stalk to hold to substrate</li> <li>• Round with a stem to attach to the sediment</li> <li>• Protrusions when tentacles extended</li> </ul>			Green Ball Sponge Latrunculia sp. <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Depth: 550-850 meters</li> <li>• Green to brown in color</li> <li>• Size: 2-7 centimeters</li> <li>• Ball shaped with visible craters</li> <li>• Newly discovered in Olympic Coast National Marine Sanctuary</li> </ul>
White Hydrocoral Stylaster sp. <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Depth: 250-800 meters</li> <li>• White in color</li> <li>• Size: 15-25 centimeters</li> </ul>	Rosy Rockfish in Sponge Sebastes rosaceus <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Depth: 30-120 meters</li> <li>• Orange to pink in color with purple edges around white spots</li> <li>• Size: 10-25 centimeters</li> </ul>	California Hydrocoral Stylaster californicus <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Depth: 4-110 meters</li> <li>• Primarily pink/purple</li> <li>• Size: Maximum 30 centimeters in height and 60 centimeters in width</li> <li>• Adheres to rocky substrate and thrives in high current areas</li> </ul>	Feather Star or Crinoids Florometra serratissima <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Depth: 10-1,250 meters</li> <li>• Multiple colors (primarily yellow/brown)</li> <li>• Size: Up to 1 meter, but most are much smaller</li> <li>• Can be found attached to rocks for filter feeding or free swimming</li> </ul>
Blob Sculpin Psychrolutes phrictus <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Depth: 500-2,800 meters</li> <li>• Size: Grows to 60 centimeters</li> <li>• Shaped like large flabby tadpoles</li> <li>• Eats crabs and sea pens</li> </ul>	Fly Trap Anemone Hormathidae family <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Depth: Up to 1,900 meters</li> <li>• Size: 30 centimeters across</li> <li>• Live on seamounts with strong currents and deep sea ridges</li> <li>• Releases bioluminescent slime</li> </ul>	Cylindrical Sponge Porifera sp. <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Depth: 800-1,000 meters</li> <li>• White, yellow or brown in color</li> <li>• Size: Ranges from very small to large enough for a person to stand inside</li> <li>• Cylindrical shaped</li> </ul>	Black Coral Antipathes dendrochristos <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Depth: 100-400 meters</li> <li>• Multiple color morphs with a black skeleton</li> <li>• Broad bushy coral that can reach heights of 250 centimeters</li> </ul>